Daily Staff Meeting

wednesday, 14 March 1951

25X1

Mr. [redacted] said that CIA had approximately 200 employees who were eligible for the draft, and that it would probably lose all of those in departmental positions and be able to have deferred those in overseas jobs. As far as personnel procurement is concerned, he stated that efforts were being made to procure only persons who are not eligible for the draft.

Mr. McConnel said that he had called Mrs. Rosenberg inasmuch as Mr. Jackson had been unable to reach her yesterday.
